February 19, 1826.

I Sally Anderson, the Testatrix of the above Will and Testament, being of sound mind and memory do hereby makè add and confirm this as a Codicil to the above named Will, that is to say, it is my wish and desire that the clause or Item in the said Will which gives Negro Andrew in trust and confidence to Eli Hoyt be revoked and I do hereby revoke the same. And it is my wish and desire that the said Negro Andrew be loaned with Negro Woman Trecey (named in the said Will) to my friends Betsey Lowrey and her sister Peggy Taylor during the natural lives of the said Betsey and Peggy and after their Death that the said Negro man Andrew be entitled to the same kindness and friendship of my Executor as are mentioned for my other negroes, he complying with the terms prescribed for said Negroes in the body of thê[s] Will. Furthermore it is my wish and desire that Negro Hull pay the sum of one hundred dollars to my Executor to go into the fund of my Estate, instead of two hundred Dollars as is mentioned in the body of Xthis Will. Furthermore it is my wish that my Executor give assent to such dispositions of the articles of Furniture about my House and things about my lot as I may think proper to make in presents to my Negroes, or my friends before I die. Signed, Sealed and published by me Sally Anderson as my last Will and Testament and the Codicil thereto in the presence of us
